INTERESTING ITEMS FROM EL VERANO AND SONOMA.

Weekly Record of all the Happenings in the Valley
as Faithfully Recorded by Our Wide-Awake
Reporter, "Archie McKiver."

Mrs. G. Lounibos visited in Kenwood the fore part of the week.

Michael Michaelson of San Francisco is registered at Fest's Farm.

John Wack, formerly a saloon man of Agua Caliente, was in town one day last week.

H. F. Brewer, representing the Ramona Candy Co., was in town Monday and received a large order from Mullen's store.

Mrs. Eschbach, who formerly resided in Sonoma but now living in the metropolis, was a guest at the Mink home several days this week.

Al. Benham was in town Monday representing the Wellman-Peck grocery firm of San Francisco. Al is a popular drummer and always receives a glad welcome here.

Nels Long, a popular young Santa Rosa taxi-cab driver, has brought to Boyes Springs a large automobile bus and several touring cars which he will run for hire the coming summer.

Chas. Spindler was in town Monday. This well-known traveling man, who appears to be always on the go, left on the S. P. afternoon train for Los Angeles, where he will spend a week and then return to his home here.

The high-class vaudeville and feature moving picture show given at El Verano Villa theatre last Tuesday evening was attended by a large audience. The show was a good one and many of the vaudeville artists were encored.

The Chicago White Sox team arrived at the Southern Pacific depot here Tuesday morning from Watsonville and were met by a big automobile bus and taken to Boyes Springs, where they contested with the Seals in the afternoon. Nels Long, the popular chauffeur, was at the wheel of the big truck.

Larry Larsen has accepted a position at the Bellevue Hotel. When interviewed by your reporter in regard to his political wagon for the county Larry explained that everything was running smoothly until he was put on the water wagon last Monday. This was too much for Larry, therefore he handed in his resignation.

Albert Rossi and John Basilou, our crack chin scraper, were busy the fore part of the week training one of Phil Rossi's new mustangs. John handled the rope while Albert handled the ribbons, and both appeared to pay more attention to the lookers-on than to the prancing steed. Just a little touch of vanity, but both are young and will learn. At any rate, our barber kept his eyes on the cavorting steeds' kicking artillery and looked half scared to death as though the Turkish army had invaded the town.

The San Francisco Seals who have been doing their spring training at Boyes left for the metropolis Thursday with their baggage and suit cases. A hearty farewell was given the departing heroes, who have furnished many a good Sunday outing to Sonoma Valley fans during their stay here. They will return in 1914 and train for another reason. No better class of gentlemanly fellows ever gathered here than the Seals and one and all will miss them and hope they will be head-liners at the end of the ball season.

Chas. Butcher of South San Francisco is spending the week at El Verano Villa.

T. Z. Blakeman passed through here last Saturday en route to his ranch at Agua Caliente.

Miss Mildred Russell of San Francisco was the guest of Mrs. M. Taylor at Verano on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Lounibos and family of Kenwood spent Sunday here, the guests of John Lounibos at the Victoria Hotel.

Harry Fine of San Francisco is a guest at Cantor's Villa and will spend several weeks enjoying the beautiful Sonoma Valley climate.

Miss Cecelia Dowdall, a book-keeper in one of the large wholesale houses in San Francisco, spent Easter the guest of her folks here.

Sir Andrew Armstrong, Baronet and High Sheriff of Kings Co., Ireland, is a guest at Boyes Springs. He is there for the benefit of his health.

Walter Poulson and wife were in Santa Rosa last Friday where they got an automobile load of sheep for the Vincent Meat Market of this place.

An all-steel car passed through here on the S. P. freight train last Monday which was quite a curiosity, being the first one to go through these parts.

M. Friedman, formerly a well-known San Francisco clothier, is registered at Fest's Farm. He will spend several weeks at this popular resort for the benefit of his health.

Harry Baines, Jim Baines and Frank Sprague of Sonoma autoted to Boyes Springs Saturday to witness the ball game between the Seals and Portland, the latter winning by a score of seven to five.

Nathan Cantor, the well-known and popular proprietor of Cantor's Villa at Verano, has purchased an up-to-date bus and team of fine horses, which he will use for the accommodation of his guests this summer.

All of Archie McKiver's Frisco girls must have forgotten him, as not one Easter postal was received by that society chap on Easter, but the good old summer time will be here soon and Archie will look for a new summer fairy.

Nels Long, the popular chauffeur at Boyes Springs, took the Chicago White Sox baseball team to Santa Rosa last Wednesday in his large automobile bus, where they crossed bats with the Portland Colts, who are in training there.

A large crowd of church-going people attended the services at St. Francis church, Sonoma, on Easter Sunday and were loud in their praise of the fine music rendered by the choir on that occasion and also the Easter sermon by Father Comerford.

News has reached here that all the freight trains that have been coming to Schellville junction will in the near future run through this place to Santa Rosa, using the "Y" at that place which will make the S. P. line one of the busiest in Northern California.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Martain, the new proprietors of the Riverside Hotel, held a family reunion on Easter Sunday. A beautiful Easter dinner was enjoyed and a pleasant afternoon was spent. The guests from here were Mr. and Mrs. A. Chevalier, Mr. and Mrs. J. Raybeau and Ed. Poteros.

Lloyd Stillings, driver of the Home Bakery wagon, had a bad mishap while riding a bike. He collided with another wheel, badly nicking up his face, the latter part of last week. Lloyd looks like he had ran up against the real thing as his head is entirely wrapped up at this writing.

The good old summer time is here again and quite a number of tourists are now invading this town. The summer resort owners all expect a big rush and it is rumored that we are to have four up-to-date barbers here this summer. Arrangements have already been made to have a crack chin scraper at the principal resorts and no one will want for a slick up the coming summer.

Rudolph Sporeckels, better known to Mayor Rolph's administration in San Francisco as "Dear Rudolph," came up on Friday evening's S. P. train from the Bay City and is spending a few days on his large ranch at Sobro Vista, and no doubt during his sojourn will pay a visit to "Dear Guy" in regard to political matters in the Sonoma Valley. A powerful bunch they are when it comes to throwing hot air.

Miss Nettie McConche visited at Santa Rosa on Saturday and Sunday.

Frank Benjamin, Jr., was sightseeing in the Bay City one day this week.

Miss D. Beall of the Bellevue Hotel spent Easter visiting in San Francisco.

Fred Norrbom transacted business at the county seat one day last week.

Otto Spindler and Geo. Supf of San Francisco were here Sunday the guests of friends.

M. E. Cummings passed through here last Thursday evening en route to Santa Rosa.

Louis Kearney left for Bennett Valley last Saturday, where he has leased a large vineyard.

Louis Lamotte autoted to Pajuma last Thursday evening where he joined the order of Elks.

The Kearney Brothers have started to plow the Gundlach-Bandschu vineyard at Vineburg.

W. Collins, of the Collins & Mohr moving picture firm, transacted business in St. Helena last Friday.

The El Verano Development Association held a large and successful meeting last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. D. McIvor and two children have returned to Berkeley after spending several weeks with friends here.

Frank Bombhoff was a well known man of this place who transacted business at the county seat Saturday.

W. W. Carter, the well-known Sonoma real estate man, passed through here Saturday bound for San Francisco.

Eddie Egan, a well-known San Francisco business man, was here several days last week registered at the El Verano Villa.

Larry Larsen has resigned his political job under the administration of J. Harry Weiss. John Vincent received the plum.

A wine bum made his appearance in town one day last week and visited the Chelini place in quest, it is supposed, of some red paint. Mr. Chelini and a neighbor were awakened by the barking of dogs and got up to see the supposed thief flying towards this town like a deer. It is surmised this same prowler is the ham thief that made the midnight raid on the Helvetia Hotel a few weeks ago, and it is supposed that this will lead to the arrest of the burglar and put an end to these depredations.

New Writers at the Sonoma Public Library.

It may not be amiss to call special attention to certain of the writers whose books have recently appeared for the first time on the Sonoma public library shelves.

Harold Bindloss is a Canadian writer whose stories deal very largely with "out of doors," and for that reason are generally very attractive for men and boys. Life in the Northwest is portrayed with skillful pen, and his men and women are sane, strong and alive. Martin Maartens is a Dutch writer, whose novels have been rated for years among the very best, ranking especially high in their portrayal of character. His pictures of Dutch life are fascinating and his themes are always worth while.

Ernest Hornung is the author of the famous "Raffles." His "Stingaree," on the shelves of the library is a series of ingenious tales of the daring adventures of an old-time Australian bushranger—a man's story.

Charles Eastman, author of "Old Indian Days," is the famous full-blooded Sioux Indian who was educated at Harvard, became a physician, married a noted American verse writer and has written various valuable books about his race. The present volume is especially recommended for the pictures of the life and thought of the Indians of forty years ago as understood by one of them who is educated to the white man's standard.

Mary Roberts Rinehart is probably the greatest woman-writer of "mystery" stories of a high class. Her books are commended as "ingenious, surprising and full of fun." They are not cheap detective stories.

William Le Queux is an English writer of "mystery" stories who is very popular, with a style quite different from Mrs. Rinehart's.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES AND HAPPENINGS IN TOWN.

Doings of the Various Sets in this City and Its Immediate Vicinity—The Goings and Comings and Other Items of General Interest.

Jesse Burris, the banker, transacted business in Santa Rosa last Tuesday and Wednesday.

A. Beretta, Secretary of the Sonoma Brewing Co., was in the metropolis Sunday and Monday.

Jewell Johnson of San Francisco was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hansen several days.

Vince Rooney and Harry Smith, instrumental entertainers at Miller's Villa, Verano, were in town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hotz (nee Waterman) were presented with a baby boy last Saturday.

Mrs. J. A. Poppe, Sonoma's pioneer woman merchant, celebrated her eighty-fourth birthday last Tuesday, and is still hale and hearty and looks as though she would celebrate many more birthdays.

Mrs. F. J. Hansen returned from San Francisco last Sunday morning, where she recently underwent a capital operation in St. Mary's hospital. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hansen in this valley, and their names are legion, will rejoice to know that the operation was eminently successful and that Mrs. Hansen has been fully restored to her usual good health.

Miss Vic Lynch, sister of R. E. Lynch, local manager of the California Telephone & Light Co., who underwent a capital surgical operation in Ukiah, one day this week, is not expected to survive the operation. Miss Lynch is well-known in this city.

"Happy" Hogan, the celebrated ball player, was entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McDevitt last Wednesday.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Maloney was brightened last Saturday by the arrival of a brand new baby boy.

Willie Peterson, accompanied by his sister, returned home the latter part of last week from a two-weeks visit with relatives in San Jose.

Mr. A. Legallet, a prominent banker of the metropolis, accompanied by Mrs. Legallet, G. Maxwell, Jr., Antoinette Froment, C. Deloche and Marguerite Froment, autoted from the city on Friday of last week for a week end visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. Froment of this place. During their sojourn here Mr. and Mrs. Froment entertained their guests with an elaborate Sunday dinner at which Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Arbogast of Schellville were also of the party.

Mr. Legallet returned to San Francisco in his car late in afternoon, accompanied by his relatives and friends, if we except Mrs. Legallet and Mrs. C. Deloche, who made the return journey by train.

The Comedy at Sacramento

"It is evident that Assemblymen H. C. Bagby of Santa Maria, although a Democrat, is not without his lucid intervals," says the San Francisco Argonaut. "Being the only Democratic legislator from the southern part of the state it may be that a sense of isolation has conduced to those reflective processes that are lamentably out of favor at Sacramento. However that may be, Dr. Bagby deserves to go upon record for his outspoken opinion that the legislature is a costly and ridiculous farce, and that it would be well for us to minimize the evil by reducing the number of members and allowing them to convene every four years instead of every two years. The community at large, if we may judge from public comment, seems to be of opinion that the process of numerical reduction could hardly be carried too far, and that a four-yearly session would exactly halve the existing scandal. It could be halved again by extending the period of immunity to eight years.

The second half of the divided session is now in progress, and it is easy to believe that Governor Johnson is sick and tired of the whole nuisance, not because it is mischievous to the public, but because of its injurious effects upon his own fortunes. He is fully shrewd to know that he himself is involved in the gust of contemptuous laughter with which these farcical proceedings have been greeted from one end of the state to the other. It is a Progressive legislature, summoned from the depths of human inanity by the wave of the Progressive wand which he himself carried. Now at last the public can see for itself what the dancing dervishes of progressivism are capable of in the way of legislation. There is not an interest in the state that has been left unthreatened, not a personal liberty unassailed, not a folly or a prejudice unchampioned. No wonder that the governor is anxious to ring down the curtain and to lower the lights. His armory contains no weapon against ridicule.

It is hopeless to forecast what the legislature will do in its declining days. There are 4000 bills to be considered, and of course the large majority of these will die by a merciful strangulation. But determined efforts will be made to pass many of the more objectionable among them. There are bills by the score, mainly emanating from ministers and woman's clubs, enacting that vice no longer exist, and nothing is more deplorable than to read of the many legislators who know, and say, that these repressive measures will actually aggravate existing conditions but that they must none the less be voted for under pain of political extinction. Some of these bills, and the more highly favored among them, actually offer a money reward to informers and so dignify the trade of the spy into a remunerative profession. To expect that legislators will resist the coercion of clubs and organizations is to ask too much of legislative human nature. Legislators are not made after that pattern.

One of the chief dangers of pernicious legislation is to be found in the habit of trading votes. Jones promises to vote for Robinson's bill in return for Robinson's promise to vote for Jones' bill. Neither has the least interest in the other's measure and probably the community would condemn them both. A measure of real value can secure the votes necessary to its passage only in return for corresponding votes for the crazy bills of other members, and so freak after freak is pushed onward toward success, not because those who vote for them have any belief in them, but because their aid is the price that must be paid for reciprocal favors. It is a sorry spectacle. The whole session has been a sorry spectacle, and we have no right to hope that it will not be repeated again and again so long as self-seeking reformers for revenue only are able to persuade a busy and uninformed electorate that is possible to secure the kingdom of heaven upon earth merely by the passing of laws.

Newspapers as an Educator

Dr. Talbot Williams, director of the school of journalism at Columbia University, proposes that the public libraries foster the publicity movement by cataloguing and filing newspaper clippings for ready reference on every topic, as is done in a newspaper "morgue," or library of clippings.

He explained this suggestion before the New York Library Club at the Twenty-third-street Y. M. C. A. last night, speaking on the relation of the libraries to the publicity movement from the point of view of the newspaper man.

Dr. Williams said that publicity relates to the present. What people interested in the movement, he declared, want to find out lies in the news of today or yesterday. The most helpful information on present municipal government cannot be supplied with books published years ago.

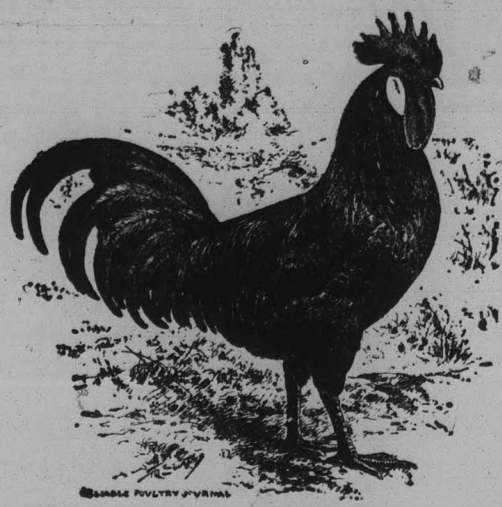

Libraries could, therefore, throw more light on problems of the day by cataloguing newspaper items for the public than by recommending out-of-date reports.

Any important topic could thus be ready looked up by the seeker after knowledge. Dr. Williams maintained that even the expert would be benefited.

Geirich & Callahan still continue to make improvements on their modern poultry yards on the Hyde tract.

On account of the inclement weather this burg was somewhat quiet on Sunday last, but a number of people visited relatives here.

Jack Poulson, one of Sonoma City's popular young men, was a visitor at Batto's spur on Wednesday and every one was glad to see Jack.

The Misses Dresel, daughters of Dr. Dresel of San Francisco, returned to their city home on Monday after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dresel.

At the earnest solicitation of his friends Fred Batto has decided to become a candidate for School Trustee of Huichica District the coming election.

A fifty-ton car of choice hay was switched in on Batto's spur Wednesday morning. The car was completely built of steel, the first of its kind to arrive here.

William Block, the boss teamster of the Gundlach-Bundschu Co., attended the ball game at Boyes Springs Tuesday and seemed well pleased with the game. Our Willie is quite an expert in that line and in a short time may give some of the Seals and White Sox a few pointers. Just give the kid a chance and he will land alright.

Charles Gro-kopf has purchased a well E M F automobile and now all our young ladies are happy as they won't have to walk any more. Don't get too confident you faries or Charley may fool you.

Miss Emily Batto represented Vineburg on Sunday at the Easter festival tendered to the children by Mr. and Mrs. Casson at their residence on Napa street. The little lady reports a pleasant time for all who were present.

The residents of this valley should be proud of the many improvements under way in Sonoma and vicinity. We are now witnessing the results of the recent successful fair held by the ladies of the St. Francis church, and the Rev. Father Comerford should be complimented on the many beautiful and lasting improvements he is making around the church property and the streets adjoining.

Captain Peter Bosh will leave here on Saturday to take command of a vessel plying between Portland, Or., and San Pedro. The Captain is well-known among seafaring men.

Easy Jim: I saw in last week's Index that Archibald McKiver reported that you were in El Verano on March 17th very wet. All I have to say is that if he had the load of feed you had on your wagon he would be wet to that rainy afternoon, too.

Cedric Cutter and Oscar Studley have taken a contract to cut wood in the Rasmussen grove, but Minnie Madden says they can't cut enough wood to keep oneself warm. What did you do, to Minnie, boys?

Eph Cutter of North Vineburg and William Russell of Sonoma went crab fishing on last Saturday evening. They had fine luck and it is reported that Mr. Russell will, in a short time, deliver a lecture on crabs and how to catch them.

August Figue, a well-known wine merchant of San Francisco, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Batto on Easter Sunday. He returned home the same day with his wife and children who had been spending last week here.

Relief for the Flood Sufferers

A special meeting of the Board of Trustees of the City of Sonoma was called by the President of the Board, last Thursday evening, for the purpose of considering the sufferings by the great floods in Indiana and Ohio, and the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to act throughout Sonoma Valley and raise by subscription all it possibly can and report at the conclusion of their labors to the chairman of the Board.

The following were thereupon appointed as such committee:

Sonoma—Dr. W. B. Hays, F. T. Duhring and O. R. Wagner. Schellville—Wm. Clements and J. Landsborough. Eldridge—Robert P. Hill. El Verano—El Verano Development Association.

Our citizens are aware of the devastating and appalling floods in Ohio and Indiana, and the great loss of life, destruction of property and untold misery and suffering left in their wake. This has prompted the Board of City Trustees to make a special appeal to assist the unfortunate sufferers.

SONOMA VALLEY NEWS ITEMS.

As Reported by That Live Wire, Archibald McKiver, Who is Always Right There With the Goods.

C. F. Carmer and Frank La Franchi are busy this week having several lots fenced around their premises.

Mrs. G. Lounibos, after spending several days with relatives in San Francisco, returned home the latter part of the week.

Joe Ryan, Sonoma's popular Deputy Sheriff, passed through here one day last week with a prisoner billed for the Hotel de Smith at Santa Rosa. He is held for forging a check at Sonoma.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Cereghino and daughter, accompanied by Miss M. Friderger of Glen Ellen, passed through here last Friday en route to Petaluma where they spent Easter, the guests of the former's folks.

George McNab, the well-known Sonoma baseball umpire, was in town last Friday and was loud in his praise of the Boyes Springs management in rewarding him for his work done in umpiring the game between the Seals and San Rafael. If the management is as liberal to all judges as they were to George they will have no trouble in getting them.

A school election will be held here on Friday, March 29th, for the election of a school trustee, which promises to be very exciting. Word has reached your reporter that a mysterious lady of this place will come out for trustee, and it is high time that some live aspirant for the job should get out and make things hum in the school line. Women take more interest in our school affairs than the men and things won't be right until the women are elected to serve on our school boards. The election will be conducted by the following officers: Inspector, D. W. Corbin; Judges, Edwin Faithful and T. H. Baines. The polls will be open from 12:30 to 3 p. m.

This town was deserted Tuesday, everybody going to the ball game except the assistant railroad agent, the Postmaster and the village blacksmith, who remained at home to attend their daily duties and guard the town. Ollie Johnson, who is half dry and half wet according to whom he meets, laid aside the strenuous duties of farming and occupied a seat in the gallery. A. Block represented the El Verano lumber yard and was an interested spectator. Principal A. H. Kemp of our grammar school, shot through the meadows like a scared wolf and landed on the grounds in time to hear the umpire shout "play ball." He liked the game and the recreation from his arduous duties of teaching the young idea how to shoot did that young gentleman a world of good. H. H. Granice, with a full auto load of friends in his car, was on the ground and claimed after the game had ended that he had seen better. Most conspicuous among the crowd were the Sonoma merchants, who kept parading in front of the bleachers evidently to show everybody they had shut up shop just for the sake of a ball game. These interfered with the view of many an interested fan by standing in their way, imagining mayhap that they were glass men. Two attractive girls from Glen Ellen were there, too, and with their conspicuous plumes seemed to make no mistake that the crowd noticed them. Phil Rossi, cafe owner, was in the gallery shouting for the winning team. Jim Baines was there, too, but didn't seem to think much of the game, and attended to see his old friend Ping Bodie in action and there were others.

ARCHIBALD MCKIVER, El Verano, March 25, 1913.

School Trustee Elections.

The electors of the Sonoma Valley Union High School and the Sonoma Grammar School have been called upon to vote for two High School Trustees and one Grammar School Trustee on Friday, April 4th. The polling place will be at the grammar school house and the polls will be open from 1 to 5 p. m. The outgoing trustees are as follows: High School, Robt. A. Poppe and Robt. P. Hill; grammar school, Carl Dresel.

Heavy Frost

There was snow on the summit of the Sonoma Mountains last Monday morning and a heavy frost in the valley. It is not thought the cold snap will injure the fruit crop to any considerable extent, but it will certainly do more harm than good.

TEURING CAR GOES OVER HIGH BRIDGE

With Its Five Occupants Plunges Ten Feet to Bottom of Creek and then Turns Turtle.

About nine o'clock last Wednesday night a five-passenger touring car, containing Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Fay, two sons and a daughter and the chauffeur, while on their way from Oakland to visit friends in Kenwood, ran off a county bridge in El Verano and plunged to the creek bottom ten feet below, which contained several feet of water. As the machine plunged over the bridge it turned completely over and landed upside down in the creek bottom. Mr. Fay and his eldest son were caught and pinned beneath the overturned car and were in imminent danger of drowning when help arrived. This came in the shape of some twenty-five members of the El Verano Development Association, whose hall was near by and which was holding a meeting at the time of the accident.

When the car went over Mrs. Fay, daughter and youngest son were thrown clear of the wrecked car and seeing lights in the Development Association's hall rushed hither for aid. The members immediately responded and reaching the overturned and wrecked auto waded into the creek just in time to lift the car off the prostrate men and prevented their drowning or being slowly crushed to death. Upon getting the elder Fay out of the wreck it was found he had been badly injured about the head, one long and deep gash extending across the cranium from which the blood poured in torrents.

Young Fay escaped with minor bruises, but had help been delayed a few minutes longer, he would surely have been drowned as he was just able to keep his head above the water. The other occupants of the car also escaped with slight hurts.

Dr. Leix was sent for and attended to the injured and as no bones were broken the doctor, after attending to Mr. Fay's hurts, put the entire party in his car and drove them to Kenwood.

The escape from death was a most miraculous one. The car was completely wrecked and still lies at the bottom of the creek apparently beyond repair.

Trout Season

The trout fishing season on the east streams opens next Tuesday, and in anticipation of good sport. Local fishermen will turn out en masse on April 1st to whip the various trout streams in this valley—some sixteen in number.

Fine Stock For Jack London's Ranch

(From The Breeder and Sportsman, March 15, 1913.)

Jack London, the novelist, is buying a lot of fine stock for his ranch at Glen Ellen. He has purchased from Henry Wheatley of the Salvador Stock Farm, Napa county, the famous Shire stallion Neuaad Hillside, 28,601, sire Moots Chief, 22,594, dam Neuaad Venture, 64,545. He was champion at the State Fair in 1912. This stallion was pronounced by Professor Corlyb to be the best stallion in the West. London also bought of Wheatley a high class Shire mare, Cockerington Princess, 63,263, sire, Phenomenon III; by Seldon Seen, 5384, dam Cockerington Polly, 50,710, by Redlynch Victor chief, 19,056. This mare won several prizes in England, and is in foal to that great horse, King of Tauridridge, 24,351. She should prove a great broodmare.

Chas. J. Poppe was in Sonoma last Tuesday and attended the birthday anniversary party tendered to his mother, Mrs. J. A. Poppe. March 25th is coincident day for Charley, as it is his mother's birthday, his son's birthday, his wedding date and he celebrated his thirtieth wedding anniversary on that day.

Woman's Club Notes

A special feature of Friday afternoon's meeting of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club was a paper on "The Teaching of History and the New Patriotism." Owing to the fact that the day was Good Friday the attendance was not very large and as the paper was one of unusual interest it has been decided to have it published in the near future.

A whist party will be held in the club parlors on the evening of April 1st.

Important to Homesteaders

Homesteaders who made entry prior to June 6, 1912, may prove up under the old law or the new, as they may choose, a new ruling to that effect having been made by the Commissioner of the General Land Office. The former ruling required them to file notice within 120 days of the passage of the three year Act, (June 6, 1912). If they desire to prove up under the Act under which entry was made. The new ruling provides that all who made entry prior to June 6, 1912, may prove up under either the old or the new law, merely declaring in their notices of intention to prove up, which they desire to act under.

"Young man, when you buy a buggy, be sure it's a Studebaker"

Sound advice from the man who has been driving one for twenty years.

When you buy a Studebaker buggy you are buying all the skill, experience and science in buggy building that half a century can produce. You are protecting yourself against the mistakes of younger builders.

You will always be proud of the Studebaker nameplate, for there isn't a buggy on the road that is its equal for style, luxury and good looks.

Flexible bent-reach gear, graceful lines, solid corner, plugless body, double-ironed shafts, are a few of the special Studebaker features.

The new close-fitting shifting rail is enough in itself to make you buy a Studebaker buggy.
